

Guiding children's behaviour

Free parent information session

Ideal for parents of children aged 1 to 6 years

Early Childhood Management Services (ECMS) in partnership with Wyndham City Council welcome all families to attend this free information session on "Guiding children's behaviour".

In this session, Dr Louise Porter will advocate for a guidance approach to children's behaviour. This method teaches children to manage their emotions and impulses. The session will also describe how to safeguard children's self-esteem by acknowledging their achievements and supporting their development.
